On the ball

Welcome to today's visitors Tottenham Hotspur who have really made an impact in their couple of seasons back in the First Division.

The signing of their two Argentinian stars really captured the imagination and the whole business showed a great deal of flair and imagination on the part of the club.

There was, of course, the risk that a great deal of money could have been spent and things go wrong, but Villa and Ardiles have proved that they have an awful lot to offer English Football.

The Wanderers went down to the Midlands in midweek and figured in a most extraordinary game against West Brom at The Hawthorns. The result, as you will all know, was a 4-4 draw.

Many people considered that the game ought not to have been played with conditions simply atrocious — and perhaps this had something to do with the score-line.

But it can't take away the fact that Mike Carter chimed in with a couple of goals, Neil Whatmore hit target and Peter Reid came along with the late, late equaliser.

It was real cliff-hanging stuff and, of course, provided the side with a valuable point from a ground that has not been a very happy hunting ground for the Wanderers in recent years.

But coming after last Saturday's home defeat at the hands of Derby County it was something of a tonic for the players and supporters.

Today's game against Spurs is another test and likely to be in the visiting side is Don McAllister the Radcliffe-born defender who started his career at Burnden.

Don is doing well with the London club but some of his contemporaries here at Bolton are having mixed fortunes. Garry Jones is on offer at Blackpool for a small fee; Alan Waldron played in the Bury reserves at Burnden recently.

And Stuart Lee, at Manchester City, has been attracting attention from American clubs with quite a lot of money involved.

Today's game is likely to be another in which the current crop of Bolton youngsters are given a chance. The best of luck to them, they are getting the opportunity to show what they can do and you can't say fairer than that!

Welcome to TOTTENHAM

Tottenham enjoyed a remarkable run to the quarter-finals of the F.A. Cup, and were decidedly unfortunate to be knocked out by Liverpool at that stage. But the form that took them to within sight of Wembley has somehow deserted them in the League and the White Hart Lane club will now have to settle for a mid-table position this year.

Spurs finally ended their Manchester United Cup hoodoo when they won this season's third round replay at Old Trafford with a goal by Ossie Ardiles eight minutes from the end of extra-time. Earlier in the season they had been beaten in the League Cup by United while last season they were ousted from the sixth round of the F.A. Cup by their Manchester rivals.

Following a tight 0-0 draw at Swindon, Spurs won the replay 2-1 and they proceeded to beat Birmingham 3-1 at White Hart Lane in the fifth round. Came their sixth round home tie with Liverpool and Spurs were punished cruelly when Ardiles, attempting to use his characteristic creative pass out of defence, placed the ball at Terry McDermott's feet and stood in horror as the Liverpool man volleyed a spectacular goal to win the tie.

Tottenham have won three away League games — at Leeds (2-1), Bristol City (3-1), and Brighton (2-0). They drew at Coventry (1-1), Crystal Palace (1-1), Middlesbrough (0-0), Everton (1-1), Manchester City (1-1).

Spurs were beaten at Norwich (0-4), Stoke (1-3), Southampton (2-5), Liverpool (1-2), Ipswich (1-3), Arsenal (0-1), W.B.A. (1-2), Derby (1-2), and Nottingham Forest (0-4).

Indeed, Tottenham made such a disastrous start to the season — losing their first three games — that it seemed for a while that they would have a relegation fight on their hands.

Manager Keith Burkinshaw took the drastic decision to axe his complete back four! He moved Steve Ferryman back from midfield to fill one of the centre-back positions, alongside Paul Miller. Don McAllister was recalled at full-back, with Chris Hughton being given his first League experience on the opposite flank.

Gordon Smith later regained his place in the back four until he was injured.

An injury to Barry Daines enabled Milija Aleksic to take over in goal but, when he too was injured, Mr. Burkinshaw had to recall Mark Kendall from his loan arrangement at Chesterfield to get the club out of a spot.

Glen Hoddle, Terry Yorath and John Pratt have been the usual choice in mid-field though Ricardo Villa has sometimes operated in this department. Ossie Ardiles prefers a midfield role though Spurs have often used him as an attacker.

Chris Jones and Gerry Armstrong formed their strike force until young Marc Falco was brought in at the expense of Jones.

Many adjustments have had to be made since the club was relegated to the Second Division in 1977. They succeeded in reclaiming their First Division place at the first attempt and last season they finished in 11th position. If they can settle for something similar this season they will be quite happy.

Most of Spurs' modern successes have been achieved in Cup football. The last time they won the League Championship was back in 1961 when they also won the F.A. Cup to complete the double. They later won the F.A. Cup again in 1962 and 1967 and they picked up the League Cup at Wembley in 1971 and 1973.

Their record in domestic Cup football is unique. Spurs are the only club to appear in seven finals of the F.A. and League Cups and win the lot!

Indeed, Tottenham have played in a total of ten major Cup finals and been beaten only once. That was in 1974 when they went down 2-4 on aggregate to Feyenoord in the final of the UEFA Cup. They had previously won that Cup in 1972 and in 1963 they were the first English club to win a European trophy when they won the Cup-Winners' Cup.

Runs to the quarter-finals of the F.A. Cup for the past two years indicate that Spurs have lost none of their Cup touch. What they seek now is the more consistent level of performance that will enable them to make a better showing in the League next season.

Pitch Improvements....

THE Burnden Park pitch came in for some strong criticism after last week's 2-1 home defeat by Derby County. The pitch cut up badly and the heavy conditions made it difficult for players on both sides to display their particular skills.

Wanderers boss Stan Anderson said after the game that a number of his players had complained about the state of the pitch, but there was nothing that could be done about it until the summer.

"There were a lot of mistakes in the game, largely due to the conditions. You don't get professional footballers making so many mistakes controlling the ball." Mr. Anderson said.

The club is however well aware of the problems surrounding the state of the pitch and secretary Mr. Des McBain said this week that a renovation plan was being drawn up.

The major problem is that the pitch is badly drained and is uneven. There are dips and hollows all over its surface and although the pitch looked flat at the start of the Derby game, there was some six inches of sand around the middle.

Little wonder then that the players found it difficult to control the ball when they were ankle deep on the holding, tiring conditions.

But what can be done?

"The club is well aware that the pitch has deteriorated in the past four years or so and we fully intend carrying out major surgery in the close season.

"Test bores have been drilled over the whole area of the pitch and the soil analysed. A full report on the work necessary will be made some time in the near future.

"It is obvious that a pitch in good condition is a necessity these days to avoid having matches postponed and to provide the players with a good playing surface. On a suitable surface the players have a chance to show their skills to entertain the public, who I am sure will appreciate fast-flowing football.

"The pitch improvement, under the supervision of one of our directors Mr. George Ashworth, is only one of a number of schemes which are being considered for the improvement of facilities at Burnden Park during the coming close season."

It was ironic that the pitch problems should attract a great deal of attention in a game when our old friends from Derby were the visitors to Burnden.

If you remember, Derby themselves, had all sorts of problems with their pitch some years ago and the Baseball Ground was often coming under fire from critics inside the game.

Derby took positive steps to alleviate the problem and now The Rams enjoy a much improved playing surface.

BARRY DAINES (Goalkeeper) An injury to Milija Aleksic gave Barry the chance to return to Spurs' goal. He has been with the club for many years and spent a long while as the patient understudy to Pat Jennings before winning a regular place in 1977.

MILIJA ALEKSIC (Goalkeeper) Milija made his League debut for Plymouth in 1973/74 and, during his spell at Home Park, he was loaned to Oxford and Ipswich. Luton paid £20,000 for him in 1976 and sold him to Spurs three years later for £100,000.

CHRIS HUGHTON (Defender) Chris is a versatile player who can play on both sides of the defence. Though he has only this season won his way into the Spurs' first-team, he is already a Republic of Ireland international.

PAUL MILLER (Defender) Paul turned professional with Spurs in May 1977 and made a few senior appearances last season. This term he has been filling one of the centre-back positions.

STEVE PERRYMAN (Defender) Though he spent most of his career as a midfield player, and won England under-23 caps in that position, Steve is also an excellent centre-back. Steve is a product of the club's youth policy and he has been in the side since 1969.

DON McALLISTER (Defender) Don spent the early part of his career at Burnden Park, making 156 League appearances for us before moving on to Tottenham for £80,000 in 1975.

GORDON SMITH (Defender) Gordon is a former Scottish under-23 international who began his senior career with St. Johnstone in 1972/73. Aston Villa paid £75,000 for him in 1976 and he was a regular at Villa Park for two years until signing for Spurs for £150,000 last season.

GLENN HODDLE (Midfield) Glenn made a dream debut for England against Bulgaria at Wembley earlier this season, capping his performance with one of his special, long-range goals. He made his Spurs' bow in 1975/76 and last season spent some time as a forward.

JOHN PRATT (Midfield) John is a Spurs' discovery who first came into the side in 1968/69. He has now played well over 300 first-team games.

TERRY YORATH (Midfield) Terry is skipper of the Welsh national team and he joined Spurs from Coventry on the eve of this season for £300,000. Terry now has 50 Welsh caps, gaining the first while he was still a Leeds' reserve. He moved on to Coventry for £135,000 in 1976.

OSSIE ARDILES (Midfield/Forward) Ossie starred in Argentina's World Cup winning team of 1978 and, a few weeks later, he was snapped by Spurs from Huracan in a £750,000 joint deal that also brought Ricardo Villa to White Hart Lane.

RICARDO VILLA (Forward) Ricardos is another Argentinian international and he joined Spurs from Racing Club during the summer of 1978.

GERRY ARMSTRONG (Forward) Gerry is now a regular member of the N. Ireland team, with 19 caps to his name. Spurs signed him from Bangor for £25,000 in 1976.

CHRIS JONES (Forward) Chris has spent his entire career at White Hart Lane. He made his League debut in 1974/75 and two seasons later he was the club's leading goalscorer.

MARK FALCO (Forward) Mark made his League bow here at Burnden Park last season and marked the occasion with a goal. This season he has been given further opportunities to broaden his experience and he recently scored in successive games against Coventry and Leeds;

Mike Carter is foiled by Halifax keeper John Kilner.

The Programme Game

by ROY CAVANAGH

It will surprise a lot of people to know that the collecting of certain Fourth Division club programmes outweigh the collecting of the more famous First Division sides.

These clubs are the one's who continually hover around the re-election zone, and face the prospect of losing League status. If one has a collection of programmes of a club which is forced to drop out of the Football League, the value of these programmes rise dramatically.

Since the war, 6 sides have been voted out, these being New Brighton, Gateshead, Accrington Stanley, Barrow, Workington and Southport, and anyone who has copies of the first three in particular have programmes which are very highly valued in the collecting world.

For instance, whereas a 1950 programme of most of today's league sides is worth around £1.25, a Gateshead one would fetch around £7.

Mention of Gateshead reminds me of the 6th Round F.A. Cup programme of 1953 when Bolton won by a Nat Lofthouse goal. This programme would probably be worth around £8 today.

Of the present League sides, the programmes of teams such as Crewe and Rochdale are regularly snapped up by collectors as an investment on this basis.

It can work against you of course. If a side which looks doomed to apply for re-election suddenly finds a millionaire and experiences a rise up the League you can be left with a lot of unwanted run of the mill issues!

On the other side of the coin, when sides go out of the League they are automatically replaced by sides such as Peterborough, Hereford, and of course local neighbours Wigan Athletic. These clubs' programmes then become worthwhile collecting, particularly the first issues.

Tomorrow is the first official Bolton Wanderers programme fair, being held in the Executive Club from 11.30 — 3.00 p.m., and among the many reputable dealers with stalls will be Geoff Street from the "Happy Shop".

Geoff, by the way, has a really first class selection of programmes in the club shop, featuring not only most League sides but international and big game programmes, and any he hasn't in stock, I am sure he will do his best to obtain.

First Division Focus

On each of the last three occasions when Everton and Liverpool have made it together into the semi-finals of the F.A. Cup, the draw has paired them together. So Everton boss Gordon Lee could scarcely hide his relief when the Merseyside rivals avoided each other this time.

"What a wonderful thing it would be if we could meet Liverpool in the final at Wembley", smiled Mr. Lee. "Though no semi-final can ever be described as easy, I suppose you could say we got the best draw by being paired against West Ham, the last Second Division survivors."

The only one-city final to date was the 1975 clash of London rivals West Ham and Fulham. The possibility of an all-Merseyside affair has usually been killed by past semi-final draws. Back in 1906 Everton beat Liverpool 2-0 in the semi-final. When the two met again in the semi of 1950, Liverpool won 2-0. Their last semi-final clash was 1971 when Liverpool came out 2-1 winners.

They did avoid each other in one previous semi-final, though. In 1897 Everton defeated Derby 3-2 but dreams of an all-Mersey final were killed when Liverpool went down 0-3 to Aston Villa in the other game.

If Arsenal manage to overcome Liverpool in their semi, they will become the first team to appear in three consecutive F.A. Cup finals at Wembley. Liverpool on the other hand, can become the third club this century to take the F.A. Cup and League Championship double, following Tottenham (1961) and Arsenal (1971).

Liverpool's 1-0 sixth round victory at Spurs last weekend was welcomed by Manchester United, today's visitors to the Goldstone. United's last hopes of taking the League title probably rests upon Liverpool being over-stretched by a crowded fixture list. The more games Liverpool have to play the better the chances of United taking top place.

Liverpool, however, are famed for their ability to survive under excess pressures. Last season, when they also reached the F.A. Cup semi-finals, they lost only one of their final 22 League games and dropped only two points in drawn games over their last eight League games when the pressure was at its greatest. The previous year Liverpool remained unbeaten in their last 12 games while, in 1977 when they also won the European Cup and were runners-up in the F.A. Cup final, they still managed to remain unbeaten in 11 League games until the title was theirs.

Ossie Ardiles' dream of playing at Wembley were shattered by one of his rare mistakes last Saturday. It was an Ardiles' clearance that fell at the feet of Liverpool's Terry McDermott, who struck a splendid first-time winner.

Kevin Reeves' decision to join Manchester City for £1-million represented a curious change of mind. The Norwich striker had the chance to sign for City earlier this season but turned them down. He explained at that time: "It took an awful lot of thought. I realised that my cut in the transfer fee would mean I would be secure financially for life. But, after turning the idea over a hundred times, I realised that my real future lay with Norwich. We have a very good team of much potential."

After City had raised their original bid from £750,000 to £850,000, and then the magical £1-million mark, Reeves changed his mind. Maybe Norwich's dramatic decline of the past few weeks swayed him? After the shock of being beaten at home by Wolves in the fourth round of the F.A. Cup, Norwich have failed to win any of five League games played.

Another recent departure from Norwich this month was centre-back Roger Brown, sold to Fulham for £100,000. Roger had been at Carrow Road only since last summer when he joined the club from Bournemouth for £85,000.

Nottingham Forest are expected to sign a new striker. The successful Trevor Francis-Tony Woodcock partnership was broken up when Woodcock joined Cologne earlier this season. Now manager Brian Clough is hoping to switch Francis to midfield and find a new partner for Gary Birtles.

A666(M)/M61/M62/M63 (follow 'Airport' signs) to junction 9, A5103, Princess Parkway. (16 miles).

A5103 to Northenden then to Moss Side (20 miles)

M63/A5103 junction is 'one way' only and it is necessary to proceed as follows to get to Maine Road.

Leave M63 with the Airport signs keeping in the near-side lanes and join A5103. Keep left and leave the main road by the first slip road at Northenden adjacent to the Post House, filtering into the right-hand lane on the slip road so as to turn right under the dual carriageway at the traffic lights.

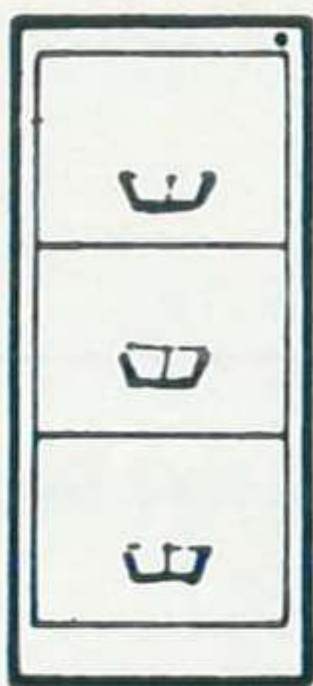

Turn right again at the traffic lights IMMEDIATELY after passing under the dual carriageway and re-join A5103. Follow A5103 City Centre signs along Princess Parkway/Princess Road to Moss Side.

Return to Bolton via Princess Road to Northenden. Perform EXACTLY the same manoeuvre at Northenden Post House but join M63 Northbound instead of A5103 City Centre.
